

Marginalisation

& the Microbe

Tuesday 22 November

Overall introduction to the conference: Dr Catherine Will and Prof Bobbie Farsides

Introduction: 14:00-14:10

Session 1: 14:10 – 15:30 ‘Bladder Health’

Chair: Dr Chi Eziefula, Senior Lecturer in Infectious Diseases, BSMS

Speaker: Eleanor Kashouris, PhD student in Sociology, University of Sussex

Speaker: Dr Annie Joseph, Consultant Microbiologist, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust, and Dr Tom Lewis, Consultant Microbiologist, Royal Devon University Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust.

Speaker: Professor Paula Saukko, Professor of Social Science and Medicine, Loughborough University

Break: 15:30-15:40

Session 2: 15:40 – 17:00 ‘Borders, barriers and AMR’

Chair: Dr Catherine Will, Reader in Sociology of Science and Technology, University of Sussex

Speaker: Dr Alena Kamenshchikova, Assistant Professor in Health, Medicine and Life Sciences, University of Maastricht and London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

Speaker: Dr Ulla McKnight, Postdoctoral Research Fellow in Sociology, University of Sussex, and Dr Catherine Will, Reader in Sociology of Science and Technology, University of Sussex

Speaker: Professor Martin Llewelyn, Professor in Infectious Diseases, BSMS

Open Discussion: 17:00 – 17:30.

Marginalisation

& the Microbe

Wednesday 23 November

Introduction: 10:00- 10:05

Session 1: 10:05 – 11:25 ‘The next big thing’

Chair: Dr Chase Ledin, Teaching Fellow, Usher Institute, University of Edinburgh

Speaker: Dr Suneeta Soni, Consultant in Sexual Health and HIV, Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust

Speaker: Professor Marsha Rosengarten, Professor of Sociology, Goldsmiths College, University of London

Speaker: Professor Daniel Richardson, Consultant in Sexual Health and HIV, Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust

Break: 11:25 – 11:35

Session 2: 11:35- 12:55 ‘Ethics and humanities’

Chair: Professor Bobbie Farsides, Professor of Clinical and Biomedical Ethics, BSMS

Speaker: Dr Peter West-Oram, Lecturer in Bioethics, BSMS

Speaker: Professor Patricia Kingori, Professor of Global Health Ethics, Senior Research Fellow, Somerville College

Speaker: Dr Jessica Nihlén Fahlquist, Associate Professor of Practical Philosophy and Senior Lecturer in Biomedical Ethics, Uppsala University

Open Discussion and closing remarks: 13:00 – 13:30.